REBELLOQUE

C.A.T.

Doctor R. Tinning
Sir:

Because you have, in a most Christian-like spirit, donated Peter Haworth's painting, "A River in Winter" from Willistead Art Gallery to Riverside Secondary School, so that the students may remember Veronica Quint, may God bless you with health, happiness, and peace, for many years to come.

the students of R.S.S.

Veronica Quint

Michael Stemmler

Dear Ronnie:

Walking through a field of yesterdays,
I saw your smile for only a second --
A mirage of the searching present,
a reminder of the past, to keep believing,
When I walk through the field of todays,
which will soon be to-morrow,
the field of yesterday,
When I saw your face . . .
and you were laughing.

Shawna Fitzgerald

for those who love them.

Dear Mike:

What would I do if you died?

I would fly my heart at half-mast
I would broadcast the news over my mind
I would read it in the morning paper
and my heart would sink
I would go to your wake
I would kneel and pray to God
I would think of how I love you
I would look at your hair
and see your eyes through closed lids
I would feel the warmth of your love
(for love is in the spirit and never dies)
I would touch your lips to hear the words
I long to hear
I would cry until my eyes were sore
and my spirit broken
I would see everyone disappear for I am alone now without you
I would ride the slack car next to you
I would watch your coffin being lowered
into the cold earth
Now, that this has all happened-- and done with. . .
I will pray to God that
When I die, I will see you and love
you more than it is even possible
to conceive in mortality.

editorial

The completion of this yearbook right now is resting on the writing of this editorial. It's been a long road to the end, but I think that I am satisfied with our work.

The format of the yearbook has altered greatly over the past year: we have employed many candid shots -- to show what the people of R. S. S. are REALLY like, and to possibly make the book more interesting. We have added a new section to the book, where we emphasized our theme of reavealing the REAL Rebels.

The only thing that put substance into the present edition were the workers themselves. Therefore, as editor, I wish to thank all the people who contributed to the production of this book, especially thanking Arlene Pagura, Business Editor; Marianne Stewart, Copy Editor; Simone Peladeau Typing Editor; and Cathy Teaney, Art Editor. But, all my memories of working on the book go to Beverly Pinnegar, Assistant Editor, when I think of all the late nights, trapped white space, fighting over the orange thing, and calling Uncle Ron names. Special thanks also go to Mr. R. Eid, for his leadership and assistance.

I sincerely hope that in future years when you look at your 1970-'71 Rebelogue, you remember the good, real things while you stayed at R. S. S.

a message from the principal

Many of us worship at the shrine of the outstanding movie star, the top recording artist, the champion athlete, or the leading politician, and, in so doing, we are saying that lesser persons don't count. Only the best is worth noticing.

At the same time most of us realize that we are ordinary persons, that we can never expect to achieve outstanding fame. And yet each of us wants to be recognized as a SOMEBODY. Perhaps somewhere we have mixed up our values.

Again, just as we take notice of the big name, so also we take notice of the big problem: -

We join in condemning the war in Vietnam but fail to do anything about living in peace with our next-door neighbour.

We join in condemning the giants of industry which pollute air, water and earth but we fail to see that each of us creates pollution and collectively we create as much of it with our cars and litter as industry does.

We feel sympathy for the underprivileged Indian or Negro; we are ready to champion his rights. But, by exerting pressure to conform, we deny the rights of an individual to be different.

I wonder if it isn't easier for some of us to climb on the bandwagon of big problems and merely pay lip-service to the cause? I wonder if some of us join the cause because it is the thing to do?

How many of us become emotional but never become involved? Think about it.

Mr. H. Ward

our vice-principals

The production of a yearbook is a task of immense proportions -- We owe all of those responsible for Rebelogue '71 a great deal of thanks -- the total experience of a student body cannot be realized in the class room situation alone. There is much more involved. Those on the staff and student body who recognize this reap their own rewards. My sincere appreciation to all coaches, staff advisers and participating students who help to make the school "School". To those who are not yet involved, may I offer my personal invitation to "drop in". I wish the graduating students well in the future -- may your success equate with your expectations.

Mr. Jenkins

It is a great pleasure for me to have this opportunity to address the entire student body. As Vice-Principal I seldom have this wish afforded me. I have visited many of the class rooms and talked with many of you in the halls and otherwise have come to know quite a few of you. As in the case of other schools with which I have been associated we have here at Riverside Secondary School, a vast majority of pleasant, happy, hard working students and a minority of disgruntled and unhappy people. I and the staff, hope that this minority of the school will change.

My plea to the student body is for the former group to prevail, for them to have the strength to resist the few who would undermine your school spirit and destroy the fine image which you have built in the community. So far the students have done so, and the few, find themselves on the fringes. The student body is a mirror of our society, and as in the society, the finest, the best, the most productive must have predominance. Please maintain this trend which you have established, and may the majority of you not be among the "silent". Have fun, grasp every opportunity afforded you here at Riverside, and best of luck to every student! I am proud to be associated with Riverside and hope that all of you share this pride.

student council -grade reps

As Riverside Secondary School opened in September 1970, there was a new student council ready for making motions and passing requisitions. One of the first articles on the agenda was the elections of 3 grade 9 reps. This was done and the Riverside Students' Council was complete.

As the organizing group of the school we presented to you dances, activity nights and a fall fair which was a smashing success. The first term was concluded with a new idea, a semi-formal on December 23, 1971. Diana Wilson and her committee well deserve credit for an evening thoroughly enjoyed by all those in attendance.

The New Year brought new ideas with it. Riverside Students became members of the Windsor and District Secondary Students Federation. It promises to be a useful and informative body.

The month of March included a chocolate bar drive which nicely bolstered the council's funds.

May 1st heralded the prom so beautifully planned by our Social Directors, Sandi Martin, Cindy Harris and Pat Wegner.

The 1970-'71 school year has travelled by all too quickly. Many new problems, along with the old ones, have been confronted by the council but in some fashion, figured out.

I'm sure I am not alone when I say that Student Council is a great experience and has given me, as a member, a great sense of achievement.

last years' prom

"KNIGHTS OF AMOR"

For those people who were fortunate enough to have attended our school prom, held last May ninth, a special enchantment seemed to unfold once a couple stepped through the doors. The Prom Decorating Committee outdid itself in beautiful displays, ranging from a bridged moat to a gloomy dungeon. The school was, indeed, transfigured into a magical fairyland, and the work done was enjoyed by all. Sue Voy reigned as Prom Queen and was supported by a court composed of Kim Alofs, Wendy Barron, Sue Clancy, Sue Hines, Geri Oke, Cathy McGrath, and Audrey Tressam. The Bill Hayden Quintet supplied the musical accompaniment. Also, it should be agreed that the after-prom arrangements were as entertaining as the prom, itself.

the running chicken

During the past year, Riverside Secondary students and teachers began to read a different type of literature. It was called the Return of the Running Chicken which first came out in the school year of 1966-'67. The Running Chicken was a free underground newspaper, and as the name applies -- a real RUNNING CHICKEN, for no names were signed below the articles. This was done for obvious reasons in which all of you should know. Our staff, was composed of many, many students; much more than you probably imagined. The majority were senior students but several from grades nine and ten also contributed, and their names were well concealed. Anybody could have written in the Chicken. All you needed was a good idea and a little bit of courage. We received many of our ideas from discussions with janitors and teachers, so it just wasn't a small minority that wrote the paper. We admit the R. C. was very slanderous and DISTASTEFUL at times although we never asked you to eat it. However you must remember it was edited by students trying to use a different approach to influence NEW ideas to the staff and especially the students. We had to put it on our own level to insure the fact that the students would understand our various messages and take action. We didn't want it to seem like propaganda handed down by the administration.

One of our ideas was school spirit. We wanted a new R.S.S., a spirited R.S.S., where we were all one big gigantic family of staff and students. This is what the Chicken was chasing. We tried to bring a little humour and and fun into the hearts of teachers and students, but in doing so hurt a few people who took us seriously, but should not have. All we wanted to do is make R.S.S. a better place to live in -- is that so BAD?

It is up to you to decide whether the Running Chicken was a success or a miserable failure. Thanks to all of you for putting up with us this year and hope to see you next year. The Running Chicken runs on.

R.S.S. concert band

For the third year the band has started with a new conductor. How's that for consistencey? At least HE cannot become pregnant!

Mr. Blair comes to us from Ottawa, backed by thirty years of experience in the musical field. In keeping with our expanding ranks, certain innovations have been carried out. This year, they have taken the form of a Junior Band. Although its future does not look too bright, we can only hope for the best. In the meantime, the Senior Band struggles on, only $200.00 away from its final payment!

Joan Kennedy,
Band President

Tuesday, February 23, saw a first in the history of the band --- a victory in the Chatham Kiwanis Music Festival. The Concert Band scored the highest mark of the day with 93, followed by the Herman Band with 90, and Patterson with 89. Individual players in solos or small ensembles also did well. Leading these were Anne Nikander, Sheilagh Brown, and Bob Fazecash, who each obtained 90 marks. I doubt if a happier group of music students could have been found anywhere in the world that night. Bravo e encore!

In a world of war, hate, poverty, and pollution, the United Nations Club endeavours to understand the major world problems. This year the Club has had many new members whom have been valued as great assets. After attending several Model United Nations in the city and an interesting Constitutional Conference, we have a greater understanding of the world and country in which we live.

In the fall of every year, a student is chosen to visit the real United Nations in New York. As this year's delegate, I enjoyed my trip immensely and learned a great deal about both institutions. I sincerely hope that many worthy club members will be able to follow in my footsteps and experience this great city as I did.

Good Luck to the U. N. Club next year.

imbroglio

Entitled the "Imbroglio" a word chosen at random from a dictionary and, coincidentally, having an appropriate meaning ("a confused mass"), our school newspaper for 1970-'71 has been produced by Mary McBean and staff of willing students. Although the school reception of our paper was lacking, the staff gained valuable experience, not only in writing articles, but, in the long hours of typing and laying out the paper to suit our needs. The "Imbroglio" staff has tried to produce a relevant, Riverside paper, and the opposite of its name. We hope that the students enjoyed the "Imbroglio" and that more students will join its glorious ranks next year. The "Imbroglio" lives on!

During this last school year, the main courtyard has been brought to life. Teachers and students alike have stopped to look at our birds and other animals. As far as we know, Riverside is the only school in Windsor with such a wide variety of wild life. The following animals have helped give the school an informal and more relaxed atmosphere; two ring-necked pheasants, two Golden pheasants, two peacocks, a skunk, two ducks, a Canada goose (Katherine), a few Bantam chickens, six white pigeons, a few rabbits, a porcupine, and a racoon (Charlie).

Although a few 'chickens' have objected to our efforts we feel we have filled a gap in the Rebelogue.

In accomplishing this some of us have acquired proficiency in the photographic techniques, although the 8 track stereo system student council denied us for our darkroom would have helped us a great deal.

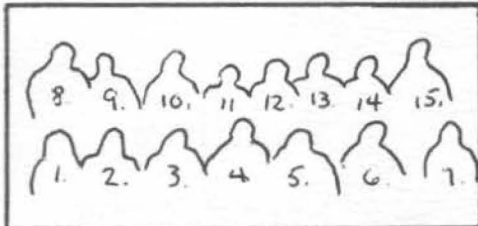

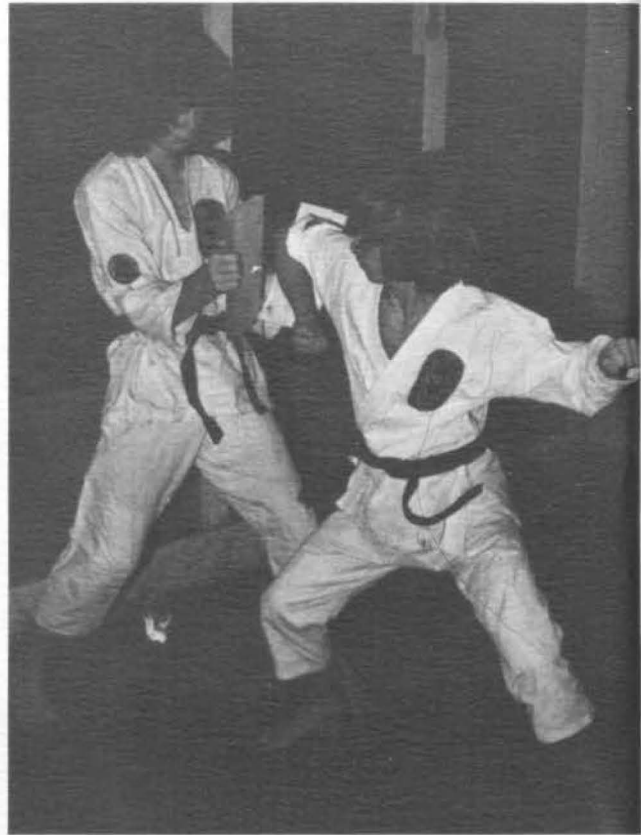

In ending we can say the Camera Club is 'developing' a good attitude toward the school.

APOLOGY

The Rebelogue Staff would like to express its sincere apologies to the Senior and Junior Girls' Basketball teams, whose pictures were, unfortunately, misplaced.

volleyball

senior girls

Sue Voy, Cheryl Brown, Karen Brennenstuhl, Miss Wright, Wendy Kuala, Mary-Jane Nantau, Pat Domino.

junior girls

Debbie Lucier, Michelle Banks, Maggie Parent, Debbie Venus, Lynn Matthews, Angela Liandzi, Miss Spicknell, Sue McCleod, Diane Alexander.

This year, the Senior Girls' Volleyball team had a fairly good season. The team's record was 3 wins and 4 losses, all of which were very close.

We lost the first 3 games but after Miss Wright made us work hard and concentrate more on the game, we went on to victory. We won the 3 games. The team only had to win one more game against St. Mary's Academy in order to make the play-offs. We lost to St. Mary's 16-14 in both halves.

The girls on the team wish to extend their appreciation to Miss Wright for having the patience and sparing her time in coaching us.

--Mary-Jane Nantau

GOLF TEAM

This year the golf team has done more for R.S.S. than any previous golf team. The golfers despite the views of other people not affiliated with the team, did play the finest calibre of golf in the W.S.S.A. and S.W.O.S.S.A. tournaments. Unfortunately due to adverse weather conditions which the boys had never experienced before and the extreme difficulty of the Toronto course, they were beaten badly in O.F.S.S.A. The boys were not able to live up to their standards as they had done in the two previous tournaments.

The golf itself was composted of:

Mike Kuta
Frank Horwood
Pete Mingay
Bob Taylor and Dave Batten

all of whom have established themselves as basically good golfers, and gave everything that they possibly could to the team. The golf team won W.S.S.A. decisively in Windsor and literally ran away with S.W.O.S.S.A. in Chatham. Dave Batten was low medalist with a 72 and teammate Mike Kuta was runner-up with a fine round of 75. For this achievement alone the boys should be commended.

I need not elaborate on O.F.S.S.A. because too many false and untrue rumours or stories have circulated about the team. As far as I am concerned, the golf team has done a splendid job ON the golf course and that was their purpose as a team -- to play golf to the best of their ability.

The members of the golf team have asked to thank the student council administration for all that they sacrificed and have done for them as a team.

I guess Winston Churchill was right when he said "No matter how much good you do for a cause, if there is one thing that may jeopardize that cause in the least, people will always remember the bad rather than the good."

R. S. S. TRACK TEAM, 1969-'70

Participation on any team or in any event, is a unified effort, even though in many cases, it is an individual who is taking part. Such co-operation and spirit as demonstrated by our track team should definitely be applauded.

How to say
"Chrysler"
in 2,790
languages.

Believe it or not, that is how many languages there are in the world. And this symbol means Chrysler in all of them. It's a Pentastar, worldwide hallmark of Chrysler. It's found in over 130 countries throughout the world . . . wherever our products are manufactured, sold or serviced. Pentastar—mark of Chrysler quality . . . and Extra Care . . . in Engineering.
